FROM THE DEAN

Dear fellow RIAGO members,

Winter has passed and Easter is here! Alleluia! With this newsletter comes a big thank you all of you who participated in the two historic recitals during the month of March. The programs by Sergio Militello and Olivier Latry were quite different and yet both spectacular.

Thank you to all who responded to the survey written by our newly proposed Sub-Dean Kathy Hart. Almost half the membership made many wonderful suggestions which will be reviewed by the board and implemented over the course of the next two to three years. In the survey, you were asked the date of your birthday so we can send a card from the chapter on your special day. Please also pass along information of anyone who may be ill so that we can send a get well card.

It is time to pay our dues for the next season. Chris Sousa, membership chair, will be contacting everyone in the weeks ahead. Thank you for your renewals and please ask friends to join as we cannot continue to underwrite events without your dues and donations.

Our year is not finished yet, and we have more exciting events coming up. Please sign up ASAP to attend and present music at our upcoming Anthem-Sharing-Session on Tuesday April 23rd at 7:00 pm at the Cathedral by emailing me at Faraonefour@msn.com.

On Monday, May 20th at 7:00 pm, our annual Members' Recital will be held at Holy Apostles Church, Pippin Orchard Road, Cranston. Four wonderful chapter members have volunteered to perform a varied program for us. The recital will be followed by a reception hosted by the parish. I hope many of you will be able to attend to support our brave recitalists!

Our Annual Dinner Meeting will be held on Monday, June 3rd at 6:30 pm at Costantino's Ristorante (DePasquale Square), Atwells Avenue, Providence (valet parking available). A buffet dinner will be served. Reservations are $36 per person. Checks should be made payable to RIAGO and must be received no later than May 25th. You may not pay at the door. Mail your checks to RIAGO c/o Dean Philip Faraone 51 Summit Drive, Cranston, RI 02920. (The Costantino family placed an ad in our recently printed ad book.)

Since October, our chapter has sponsored four wonderful recitals and five workshops. We should all be proud of these accomplishments.

Please keep in your prayers all of our chapter members who have been seriously ill and also those who have experienced the loss of family members.

Once again, let me thank all of you for the positive feedback and tremendous support that you have given to me since I became Dean last October. I look forward to seeing you at the events planned for the remainder of the season. Holy Week celebrations may be over, but I hope that the Joy of the Resurrection remains with you forever!

—Philip
