FROM THE DEAN

Dear fellow Chapter Members:

We did it! The concert by the Saint Thomas Church Choir of Men and Boys at the Cathedral of Saints Peter and Paul in commemoration of the 125h anniversary of the Consecration of the Cathedral on Friday March 7th was one of the most moving performances that most of us have ever experienced.

The beauty of the Cathedral, with its world class Casavant, great acoustics and might I dare say one of the finest choirs in the world all came together to provide the great audience two hours of heaven on earth.

Those in attendance were in awe at it all. The programming and execution of the selections were perfect. Dr. Scott is a genius! I am so very grateful for all of you who helped in any way to make the evening such a success for our Chapter.

It was great to see so many Chapter members there and of course it is always an honor to have Cheryl Duerr, our Regional Councilor, with us. Also in attendance were the Most Reverend Robert Evans, Auxiliary Bishop of the Diocese of Providence, Monsignor Anthony Mancini, Rector and Music Director of the Cathedral, Reverend Jeremy Rodrigues, Administrative Secretary to His Excellency Bishop Thomas Tobin, Bishop of Providence, as well as many other clergy and religious from the Diocese of Providence and the Episcopal Diocese of Rhode Island.

This performance perfectly fulfills the mission of the AGO which is to promote organ and choral music. The Choir from Saint Thomas is such a blessing and shows what can be done when talented people are well trained and dedicated in the discipline of great choral music. Dr. John Scott is an example to us all. Mr. Stephen Buzard's performance on the Casavant was a thrilling example of thoughtful registration and brilliant interpretation

I hope that this performance inspires all of us to challenge ourselves to strive for excellence in all that we do. Thanks again to all who helped make the evening a success by selling tickets and ads for the program, serving as ushers, hanging posters, making phone calls and simply talking it up. We should all be proud of what we have accomplished and move on now to the remaining events of the Season.

May you have a Blessed Easter!

Philip Faraone, KCHS

FROM THE SUB-DEAN

Thanks to all who attended the very successful hymn-playing workshop on March 22. It was suggested that we have Part II next season! Because the workshop was so successful, we're going to have a followup next season so people can bring their own introductions and alternate harmonies to play for the group. For those who were unable to attend, I'll gladly provide you with a free one-on-one session. Just let me know!

The anthem-sharing event will be Saturday, April 26, 10:00, at First Baptist Church, Wickford, Elaine Alexander host. Please bring one or two anthems that would be accessible to most choirs (2-part, 3-part or 4-part). WE MUST HAVE TEN PEOPLE TO HOLD THIS EVENT, SO PLEASE LET ME KNOW IF YOU CAN COME!

BRIAN MATTIAS ENTHRALLS

On February 8, in the beautiful sanctuary of Trinity Episcopal, Cranston, Brian Mattias gave a delightful and beneficial talk on how to keep your organ and your organ tuner happy. In reviewing some of obvious yet often forgotten components of good organ care, he told amusing but informative anecdotes of organ conservation from his many years as an organ technician. These stories prompted attendees to share their own experiences as well as ask for advice. It was a congenial time, instructive for all whether we are masters of pipe or electronic organs.
