FROM THE DEAN

On Sunday, January 8th, five of our members performed for us at St. Luke's Episcopal Church in East Greenwich. It was wonderful to hear Nancy Nicholson (our competition winner last winter, who has been studying with David Morse since then) in her first organ performance, Brink Bush playing music he has been performing all over the United States in recent months, Susan Carroll with the wonderful Bach "Toccatina, Adagio and Fugue in C", and our chapter's newest duo, Priscilla Rigg and Pamela Stuerke. What a wonderful recital, followed by a fun time of refreshments. I would especially like to thank Pamela Stuerke and Julie Tagen for all of their help, and also St. Luke's for graciously hosting us.

Martha

CALLING ALL...

ORGANISTS: Our recitalist, Stephen Hamilton, is offering a masterclass on Saturday, May 6 from 10 AM-noon at Phillips Memorial Baptist Church, Cranston. Anyone interested in playing should contact Martha Sobaje with the selection you would like to play.

AUDITORS: two people are needed to audit our books. The job takes perhaps an hour once a year, generally in July. Can you spare an hour? Do you know someone who would be willing to offer us that service—a family member, perhaps (not necessarily an RIAGO member)? You don't need a business degree—just attention to detail. Contact Martha.
