DEAN'S MESSAGE

The first weekend in May is going to be a spectacular weekend for our chapter. Guest artist and clinician, Stephen Hamilton, will be here from New York City to teach a masterclass on Saturday, May 6th, 10-12 noon, and play a recital on Sunday, May 7th at 4:00 PM.

I am happy to announce that the performers for the masterclass are David Cranmer, Adam Schneider, Pamela Steurke, and Laya Varghese, playing works of Bach, Brahms, Dicks and Selby. This is a learning opportunity for all of us to observe Stephen, a faculty member at both Hunter College and Queens College, coach these organists. We should all gain new insights about teaching and in the performance of organ literature.

Sunday's recital will feature Partita Sopra la Aria della Folia de Espagne by Pasquini, La Romanesca con Cingue Mutange by Valente, Franck's Pastorale and Chorale No. 1 in E Major, Mendelssohn's Sonata VI, Prelude and Fugue in c minor, BWV 546 by Bach, Hymne d'action de Grace "Te Deum" by Langlais, and Finale from First Symphony by Vierne—a wonderful program for the Angerstein organ at Phillips Memorial Baptist Church.

Both events are free and open to the public at Phillips Memorial Baptist Church, 565 Pontiac Avenue, Cranston. To learn more about Stephen Hamilton, log on to www.stephenjonhamilton.com. To read about the organ at Phillips, go to www.phillipschurch.org.

VIRGIL FOX ORGAN METHOD

Brink Bush, the leading authority on the music of Wilhelm Middelschulte and German Romantic organ music, student of David Craighead and Russell Saunders at the Eastman School of Music, is teaching the Virgil Fox Method of organ playing. Brink has studied this method intensely with T. Ernest Nichols, former student of Virgil Fox, virtuoso organist and author of The Innermost Secrets—technique and performing styles along with keyboard, pedal, and registration concepts used and taught by America's foremost concert organist, Virgil Fox. (<http://www.cafepress.com/virgilfoxmusic>)

This technique combines the piano technique of Theodore Leschestizky used by Wilhelm Middelschulte and pedal technique of Louis Robert, famed Dutch organist who taught Virgil Fox at the Peabody Conservatory of Music. The goal of the method is maximum relaxation at the keyboard and pedal board. Virgil Fox would perform three hour concerts of the most complex organ music completely from memory without fatigue.

In addition to an international performing career, Brink Bush also has 10 years of experience in Roman Catholic Church music and liturgy. If you want to experience the utmost security in performance and improve your skills in church music, hymn playing or concert organ music, this method is for you. For more information, contact Brink Bush at St. John's Episcopal Church, Barrington, RI., (401) 245-4065 or at brinkbush@hotmail.com.

CONGRATULATIONS

The organist/director position at the United Parish of Fall River was filled by Danielle Desmarais. She studies organ with Mary Jane Lide. Congratulations, Danielle and Mary Jane!

CONDOLENCES

We received this note from Janet L. Robinson, daughter of Muriel Robinson-Edgar.
“...She passed away after a heart attack on March 2, 2006. Although she had not been a member of the RI chapter for very long, she was active in several chapters on the east coast and served as Dean of the Metropolitan New Jersey chapter the 1960's. She was active locally in the summers always attending the St. Dunstan Choir Conference at Brown University and then at Salve Regina University.” No doubt St. Dunstan alums remember her. We extend condolences to the family.
