FROM THE DEAN

Please join me for coffee and conversation at the Cinnamon Café in Warwick on Monday, May 5 at 8:00 am. This will be the last Morning Munch for this year.

ANNUAL DINNER

The final event of the year will be a catered dinner at First Baptist Church in America, Providence, on Monday, June 2. Appetizers at 6:00 pm; dinner at 6:30. Dinner menu: appetizers, green salad, chicken francese, baked stuffed sole, vegetarian lasagna, dessert and beverages.

The annual meeting, with election and installation of officers, will be held after dinner. Stephen and Philip Martorella will present a concert of four-hands piano and organ music following the annual meeting.

Parking for the event will be in the church driveway (left off Waterman as you are starting up the hill). Additional parking can be found on S. Main St. (1 or 2 block walk).

Please find the menu selection form and the election ballot on the next page.

MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITY FOR RIAGO MEMBERS

The Bach Organ and Keyboard Music Scholarship, available from The Rhode Island Foundation, provides awards to promising music students with abilities in playing the organ or any keyboard instrument and for the professional development of church organists. Several scholarships of up to $1,000 will be awarded annually.

Applicants must demonstrate financial need and be either a Rhode Island resident enrolled in college as a music major, or a church organist who is a Rhode Island resident and an American Guild of Organists (AGO) member. The application may be downloaded from www.rifoundation.org by typing the keyword Bach on the home page and clicking on the link "2. Bach Organ & Keyboard Music Scholarship" under Section 2 — Receive, or by calling Libby Monahan at (401) 274-4564. Deadline for submission is June 9, 2008.

THE PETER SYKES WEEKEND

The Peter Sykes recital, held at Phillips Memorial Baptist Church on Sunday, April 6, was a delight for all who attended. They heard music from Bach to Vierne, all masterfully played and showing the range of music that organ can play. The French music, particularly, always shines on the Phillips organ. A lovely reception followed. Thanks to Martha Sobaje and her church members for such a welcome to all.

The following people played for the masterclass on Saturday preceding the concert: Nancy Nicholson - Prelude & Fugue in c minor, Mendelssohn; Jeff Allard - Piece Heroique, Franck; Christopher Gage - Chorale in a minor, Franck; Adam Schneider - Menuet from Suite Gothique, Boellmann.

MEMBER NEWS

Diana Norton-Jackson writes that she has played her last service at Trinity (Newport) and is retiring (again) to do free-lance and recital work and to travel. She served as interim for two years, three Easters—"a long interim for someone who thought it would be a couple of months." See Diana's recital listing in Events.

Jim Morgan, organist at St. Peter's Narragansett, was a bassoon major at New England Conservatory but switched to organ, studying with Yuko Hayashi. In the 1980s he served as Organist and Master of the Choristers at Grace Church, Providence, and is a former member of the RI Philharmonic Orchestra. See Jim's performance as bassoonist in Events.

Elsie McNeill is recovering from hip surgery over the Christmas holidays. She is recuperating at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Sue and Jeff Branco. (38 Plain St., Rehoboth, MA 02769). She misses getting to concerts and recitals, but would love to hear from her friends. (774) 565-0812; elsiemcneill@comcast.net.

Jan Aubin has a new address: 4107 Mendon Road, Cumberland, RI 02864; phone (401) 405-0564; e-mail: aubinmj@cox.net.

AGO NATIONAL CONVENTION NEWS

The forty-ninth AGO National Convention in Minneapolis/St. Paul, Minn., June 22-26, 2008 will inaugurate the International Year of the Organ and feature premier performances of new organ and choral music. More than 2,000 are expected to attend with more than 1,500 already registered. AGO members receive a discounted registration rate. Convention headquarters will be the Minneapolis Hilton Hotel. Details, including convention and hotel registration, are available online at www.ago2008.org.
