MEMBER SURVEY RESULTS

Thanks to all who completed the surveys sent out this summer. From your responses, we learned that the members of RIAGO have a wide range of interests. We also learned that the activities most members find interesting are workshops and educational events, especially about choral music, choral conducting, and service playing. Your input has influenced this year's events. Thank you for taking the time to make this a great chapter.

Pamela Stuerke, Program Committee

OCTOBER PIPEDREAMS

Visit Pipedreams online for programming, resources, and features: <http://pipedreams.org>.

#440 - New Cathedral Classics - a sampler of three recent installations of American-build instruments in Switzerland, California and Nebraska.

#441 - On the Bench - concert performances remind us of the challenges performers face and the delights we listeners enjoy.

#442 - Autumn Comes Again - Michael Barone took Pipedreams Live! to Grand Rapids, Michigan, and introduced these performances by area organists at Central Reformed Church.

#443 - Phantoms of the Organ Loft - some spooky and surprising evocations of things that go 'bump in the night', music for Hallowe'en.
